

PEOPLE'S PARTICIPATION IN FOREST GOVERNANCE AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION IN VIETNAM (PFG)

Local communities participate in forest plantations and conservation for alternative livelihoods and work with local authorities on transparent land governance

LOCATION

16 communes in Cao Bang, Dak Lak, Tra Vinh, Bac Lieu provinces

DURATION

3 years (11/2014 - 10/2018)

DIRECT BENEFICIARIES

260,000 people
 Focus on: Poor women, ethnic minorities and the youth

BUDGET

Government of Finland: EUR 1,049,652
 ActionAid Vietnam (AAV): EUR 46,103

RESULTS:

1

17 Core Community Groups (CCG) trained in forest development, livelihood models and informal democracy

2

Training-of-trainer on forest governance using national forest information system and phone application

3

Participatory Forest Governance (PFG) phone application for timber market updates

4

19 public information kiosks to access forest land ownership data

5

Policy dialogue on community-based forest management and signing Community Forest Agreements

6

Establish four community livelihood model plantations and 135 hectares of household forest plantations

7

Support two Forest Cooperatives to enhance timber value chain and wood processing

Download the application:
 "Forest Governance and Community based livelihood"

